Looking for some unique cocktail ideas to serve your guests this holiday season?

Jaunting Jill and I had the pleasure of attending A-Line Magazine's holiday cocktail class hosted by Japp's in

Over-the-Rhine, Cincinnati. Mixologist/Owner

Molly Wellman

demonstrated step-by-step instructions on how to make the perfect Christmas cocktails. She also added in some great tips on the proper tools to create tasty drinks every time. We really had a lot of fun sitting in on the class and we were thankful our friend Kenneth Wright from set us up with the tickets.

We really wanted to share these recipes with our readers who live outside of the Cincinnati area but would still like some drink ideas for the season. Be sure to check out Molly Wellman's we bpage to keep up with her latest recipes and whereabouts. If you're looking for classic style with a quirk, don't forget to sign up for a yearly subscription of

or go on to

With the festive season in full swing, it's time to get into the Christmas spirit. One of the best ways to do this is by enjoying a festive cocktail. Here are some ideas for you to try.

1. Blueberry and Raspberry Mojito - This is a refreshing drink that is perfect for the holidays. It is made with blueberries, raspberries, lime juice, and rum. It is served in a tall glass with ice and a sprig of mint.

2. Apple and Cinnamon Spiced Rum - This is a warm and cozy drink that is perfect for the holidays. It is made with rum, apple juice, and cinnamon. It is served in a glass with ice and a slice of apple.
