

Scrumptious "Scarpetta" in South Beach

Written by Jill Kerr Tepe

Wednesday, 16 March 2011 11:02 - Last Updated Tuesday, 29 March 2011 16:20

---

The newly remodeled and revitalized Fontainebleau is all the rage in the fickle SoBe social circle.

This rambling resort is so large and beautiful that it mimics a sprawling cruise ship or all-inclusive resort layout, complete with an obnoxiously large yet gorgeous pool, numerous bars, the famed LIV (currently one of the hottest night clubs in the country) and no less than 7 restaurants, of which three are fine dining experiences.

The shining star of these eateries is without doubt Scarpetta, a delectably gourmet Italian hotspot by Chef Scott Conant with locations in NY, Las Vegas, and LA.

It was a girls' night out -- just the three sisters trying to navigate the sexy social scene of Miami without getting picked up ("Thank you for the compliment, but we're all taken. Move along please"). We had reservations via OpenTable.com for a 9:30 seating, but were glad to not be seated right away so we could enjoy some drinks at the bar.

Scrumptious "Scarpetta" in South Beach

Written by Jill Kerr Tepe

Wednesday, 16 March 2011 11:02 - Last Updated Tuesday, 29 March 2011 16:20

---

Scrumptious "Scarpetta" in South Beach

Written by Jill Kerr Tepe

Wednesday, 16 March 2011 11:02 - Last Updated Tuesday, 29 March 2011 16:20

---

